

National Auslan Communications for Emergencies Professional Learning Opportunity

Presented by: Sarah Dempsey, Sarah Lewis and Imran Webb - participants of NEMP course run by VicDeaf and Monash University 2017

When: Thursday November 23
6.30pm - 8.30pm

Where: TAFE SA – Auditorium
120 Currie Street, Adelaide

RSVP: Please advise your attendance and any dietary requirements by email to aslia.sa@gmail.com

Would you like to know more about how interpreters work in emergency and media situations?

In partnership with ASLIA and VicDeaf we highlight the key learnings taken from the National Emergency Management Project (NEMP) training for South Australian Interpreters.

This learning opportunity will cover....

- Personal reflections from the course participants
- Key topics featured in the course
- Overview of natural disasters in Australia
- Media
- Growing an emergency support network within Deaf & HoH communities

If an Auslan/English interpreter is required to please contact Deaf Can:Do, interpreting@deafcando.com.au

Participants will receive the following points towards NAATI revalidation: 20 points (Section 3.2)

